

Scientific Program

The 14th International Congress on Autoimmunity will bring many topics, sessions, lectures and presentations delivered by excellent speakers and the best names in the field.

Explore the full scientific program and see what awaits at the Congress View Now Have a quick and comprehensive overview of the Congress agenda View Here

0

Speakers

0

Sessions

0

Oral discussion sessions

0

Pre-congress sessions

Get ready for many exciting and novel sessions including Debate sessions, Talk with the Professors sessions, the Academy of Autoimmunity and much more!

Autoimmunity Past Participants'

Feedback

Learn about the latest advances in autoimmunity and rheumatology.

Exchange ideas that can help advance your career and education.

%

Professional Performance

Agree that this educational event improves their professional performance

%

Active Learning

Agree that the Congress provides appropriate & effective opportunities for active learning

%

Scientific Content

Agree that the scientific/educational content is high quality and evidence base

Experience a diverse range of session types

The 14th International Congress on Autoimmunity will offer a rich and varied selection of session types, catering to the diverse interests and needs of attendees.

Intensive, hands-on training and updates on cutting-edge techniques and developments in autoimmune disease research and management. Keynote presentations from leading experts on the latest advancements in autoimmunity research and treatment. Feature presentations by pharmaceutical companies on the latest drug developments and therapeutic approaches in the field of autoimmunity. Focused sessions where researchers present and debate their latest findings and innovative studies in autoimmunity. These sessions feature lively discussions where experts present differing viewpoints on current controversies and challenges in the field of autoimmunity. Offer a diverse range of topics, providing insights into specialized areas of autoimmunity research and treatment innovations. A series of educational sessions aimed at providing in-depth knowledge and the latest updates on autoimmunity and autoimmune diseases. Join this informal session where attendees can engage directly with leading experts, gaining insights and advice on various topics in autoimmunity.

Explore the Future of Autoimmunity

Engage in in-depth discussions, challenge the experts, and connect with peers across multiple specialties in an environment that fosters collaboration and exchange.

We warmly invite you to be a part of this educational event!

Join Us